

Italian physicist and mathematician Laura Bassi died on this FAMUS day in 1778.

Fun Fact: Bassi was the first woman to receive a doctorate in STEM and the first to be hired to a salaried university position.

FAMUS [Friday Afternoon Math Undergrad Seminar] meets:

- on Fridays
- at 3:00 p.m.
- in Room 164
- of the Adel Mathematics Building

[and snacks are always served!!!!]

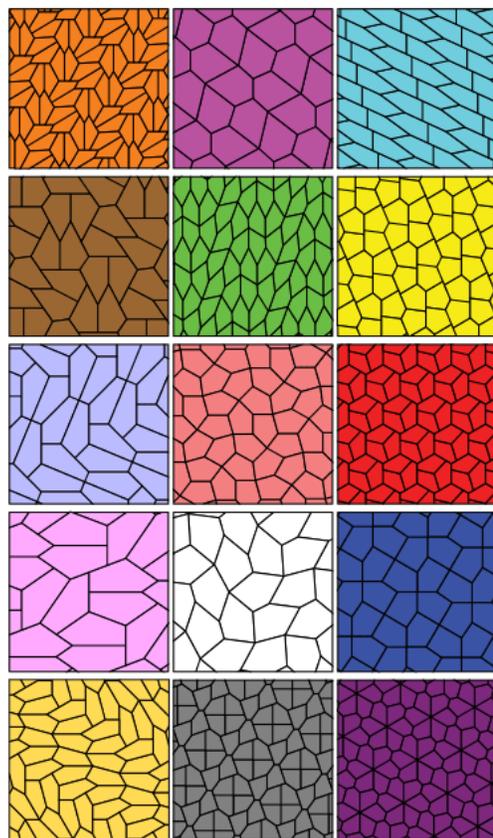

February 20th topic

Pentagonal Planar Tilings

[presented by Jeff Rushall]

February 20th guest

Nellie Gopaul

ALL MATHEMATICS MAJORS ARE ENCOURAGED AND EXPECTED AND ENCOURAGED TO ATTEND